Extracts From the Lexington Caucasian and Express

Matters of Interest Published in The Caucasian and Express, November, 30, 1898; Just Thirty-three Years Ago This Week.

Glad to See It.—Our old friend and at one time a journeyman in our office, John W. Hugus, is a banker in the house of J. A. Ware & Co., Omaha. Mr. H. is a clever gentleman and we are rejoiced at his prosperity and hope it may continue. Although opposed in politics, in the late war, he was one of the few unionists that recognized our right to the benefit of foothold. We like him.

Bar Dinner.—Owing to the failure of the secretary to furnish us with the proceedings of the bar dinner, at the Franklin House, in this city, on the night of the 25th, we are without a report. The dinner was given by members of the bar in this city to Judge Tutt, the press, the judiciary of the county, officers of the different courts, and their brother lawyers from adjoining counties in attendance upon the circuit court now in session. The occasion was an exceedingly pleasant one to all in attendance. Speeches were made in response to toasts by Messrs. Tutt, Johnson, Sawyer, Walker, Burden, DeMotte, Ryland, Crittenden, Boyd, Rathbun, Letton, Brooks, Currie, Green, Mitchell, Young and others.

The Sedalia Times, edited by Bacon Montgomery, tells a story that Gen. Vaughan voted the radical ticket. Of course its a radical lie.

Big.—Mr. G. R. Page has sent us a huge turnip, measuring 33 inches in circumference and weighing 11 pounds. His entire crop is large, few, or none going below eight pounds.

Weather.—Assorted. Anything you like. All tastes suited from north to south. Sometimes cold and then pleasant. With snow and sleet, rain and freeze.

The Automatic.—Hurry up, Mr. Graham, with your automatic washer. We have determined, now that a soap factory is so near as Warrensburg, to have the radicals all washed. We shall begin on Mrs. Vermott, and if your little joker can wash him white set us down for $10 worth of 'em at once. "Can the Ethiopian change his color or the leopard his spots?" We shall see.

Personal.—We had the pleasure of seeing a couple of our once old citizens in Lexington during the past week—Robert M. Henderson, Esq., and Thomas H. Allen, Esq. Both appeared in fine health.

Withdrawn.—Judge E. Burden declined $10,000 for his little suburban tract of 33 acres a few days ago. Railroad is coming.

MARRIAGES.

The Caucasian and Express of this date notes the following marriages:

Dr. Jacob Bull to Miss Kate Larsh, both of Lexington. At Christ church, St. Louis.

DEATHS.

At St. Louis, on the 21st inst., Mrs. Garesche, aged 46 years and 11 days.

At her residence, in Carroll county, 2d inst, Mrs. Eliza Barber, in the 70th of her age.

At his residence in Carroll county, 12th inst, Mr. Beatty, aged 78 years.

At Lee's Summit, on the 2d inst, lingering illness, Miss Lellie Hunter, years.

AN old man was refused insurance by a Company because he was 94 years old. "What of that?" he cried, "look at your statistics; fewer persons die at 94 than at any other age." You see he was right but not reasonable! So, you are right when you say you can get along without Chase & Sanborn's Seal Brand Coffee. But is it reasonable not to give this famous coffee a single trial? A wagon, you know, can get along without grease—but it goes hard.

In 1-lb. and 2-lb. Tin Cans (air tight). Other high grades in richly-colored parchment bags (moisture proof.)
